Hiland Dairy Announces Closing of Tulsa Plant

Hiland will continue serving the market with its other manufacturing facilities.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 4, 2021 – Employees at Hiland Dairy’s Tulsa plant were informed today that the facility will close on August 3, 2021. All 125 employees that work through to the closing will receive severance and benefits packages. The employees are encouraged to apply for open positions at other Hiland facilities and the leadership team is in communication with area manufacturers about open positions they are needing filled.

Hiland’s product availability and service will not be interrupted and will continue to serve the market as it has for many years. Tulsa will remain a distribution center and continue serving the Tulsa market from other Hiland plants, including its Chandler and Norman, Oklahoma facilities.
